

Wednesday

Dear Vickie and Jim,
you are flying along to Chicago while I am writing this. I am downstairs in the amusement room and I connected your little electric clock and it is working perfectly, including the alarm.
The clock we have on the wall in the amusement room was two hours slow which is odd. I can't figure it out.

Mrs. Henry Jackson was just interviewed on television and she showed some of the artifacts she bought in China and she showed the beautiful painted egg just like one gave me.
That was really exciting to see and I thank you again for mine. I just love it.

I am going down to the Arts and Crafts fair in a few Minutes and later on I am going to pick Dad up at work so he can get home a little earlier.

It was really wonderful seeing you and I hope you will get rested up when you get home.

Love,
Mom.
